

Discussion questions

1. How has your life been the same as Ruby's? How has it been different?
2. What new information did you learn about Milwaukee neighborhoods?
3. What new information did you learn about Black struggles in Milwaukee?

For 100 points

RUBY: Ruby's mother was active in what kind of club: craft club

BRONZEVILLE: Bronzeville was located where: just north of downtown

ADVOCACY: Some of the songs that Ruby's family had brought up from the South were songs of _____: protest

SHERMAN PARK: The family that helped Ruby's family move to Sherman Park was the ____: Coggs

For 200 points

RUBY: Ruby had to move in with her sister who lived where: Chicago

BRONZEVILLE: In Bronzeville, neighbors watched out for: each other's kids

ADVOCACY: Ruby joined the Youth Council of what organization? NAACP

SHERMAN PARK: Sherman Park became threatened by what development: freeway

For 300 points

RUBY: Ruby had to move in with her great aunt who lived where: Mississippi

BRONZEVILLE: the Bronzeville craft club made what kind of dolls: raggedy Ann and Andy

ADVOCACY: With Father Groppi and the Youth Council, Ruby marched to this Milwaukee park: Kosciuszko Park

SHERMAN PARK: Judge Reynolds stopped the freeway from being built in Sherman Park because the government had not conducted what: an impact study

For 400 points

RUBY: Ruby had a Jewish friend named _____: Leah Silverberg

BRONZEVILLE: A synagogue in Bronzeville was called: Beth Jehudah

ADVOCACY:

SHERMAN PARK: A synagogue in Sherman Park was called: Beth Jehudah

Ruby	Bronzeville	Advocacy	Sherman Park

100	100	100	100
200	200	200	200
300	300	300	300
400	400	400	400