

Discussion Questions:

1. How was Aisha's life the same as yours and how was it different?
2. How did the family work together to survive?
3. Would you rather work out of your home than work somewhere else? Why or why not?

Jeopardy questions:

For 100 points:

- AISHA: How old was Aisha in 2007: fifteen
- BERBERS: What was the most important thing to these Berbers: household
- HOUSEHOLD: In summers where did the household like to eat:
- BELAID: In what country was Belaid working to help the family: Spain

For 200 points:

- AISHA: What kind of a bath did Aisha take in her compound: steam
- BERBERS: What religion were these Berbers: Sunni Muslim
- HOUSEHOLD: Aisha's household lived in a large house made of what: adobe clay
- BELAID: When he worked for wages, Belaid only kept enough money to buy what: bread

For 300 points:

- AISHA: Some of the work Aisha did was what: collecting wood, making argan oil, washing clothes
- BERBERS: The Berbers had been in the Atlas mountains since _____ b.c.: 3,000
- HOUSEHOLD: The outdoor work of the household was organized by whom: oldest male (grandpa)
- BELAID: Belaid felt that his family had not given him enough _____ for his work: appreciation

For 400 points:

- AISHA: Her friend that went to live in Marrakech was named ____: Gwafa
- BERBERS: What were all the languages the Berbers knew: French, Berber, Classical Arabic, and Moroccan Arabic.
- HOUSEHOLD: What kind of oil did the women of the household make: argan
- BELAID: Belaid said that when he worked in Spain everyone around him was living in what: luxury

Aisha	Berbers	Household	Belaid
100	100	100	100
200	200	200	200
300	300	300	300
400	400	400	400