Del Porter

Del Porter founded Ace Boxing Club. Ace is in the old Congress Hall on the western edge of Kosciuszko Park. Del never charged anyone a thing to belong to Ace. And he was never paid a thing for running the club.

Over the years, Ace has produced many great fighters including his own son, Peanuts. The club has altered the lives of uncounted boys and girls who discovered, in the discipline of training, confidence and self-respect.

Del and his wife had 14 children. Del Porter was an elder in the OjibweNation and organized many annual pow wows.
