

Discussion Questions:

1. How was Sa'laLEla's life the same as yours and how was it different?
2. How would you feel about a life where you made art everyday and had as much freedom as Sa'laLEla'?
3. Have you ever made any mistakes like Sa'laLEla' did with the women in his village?

Jeopardy questions:

For 100 points:

- Kwakwaka'wakw: Did the tribe have a written language: No
- Sa'laLEla: Where did Sa'laLEla live: Northwest coast or Vancouver Island
- Numaym: Both men and women created what everyday: Art
- Kwakwaka'wakw: What was their staple food: Salmon
- Potlatch: Why did people throw potlatches: birth or marriage

For 200 points:

- Sa'laLEla Sa'laLEla's parents gave him what: Independence
- Numaym: What rank was Sa'laLEla: noble
- Kwakwaka'wakw: What kind of art did women make: woven baskets, ornaments, and blankets
- Potlatch: How did Sa'laLEla get his blankets: traded oil
- Kwakwaka'wakw: What was the Kwakiutl's form of money: Blankets
- Kwakwaka'wakw: What type of art did men do: woodworking (Masks, benches, totem poles) and painting
- Potlatch: What did the women hang on their door instead of giving away blankets: Masks

For 300 points:

- Numaym: What did Numayms share: Villages
- Numaym: Each Numaym had a story about what: Their ancestor
- Kwakwaka'wakw: The Kwakiutl had an abundant what: Food supply
- Potlatch: What was Sa'laLEla's role in the potlatch: to collect as many blankets as he could
- Sa'laLEla: Sa'laLEla tried to make the women of his tribe do what: give/donate the blankets
- Kwakwaka'wakw: Name one skill Sa'laLEla and his siblings learned: carving, weaving, and food preparation

For 400 points:

- Numaym: What three classes did Numayms have: Noble families, middle class families, and slaves
- Potlatch: What types of activities took place at potlatches: music, feasting, dancing, feats of strength, and something else.
- Potlatch: What did hosts give away at potlatches: Blankets and art
- Sa'laLEla: Why did the women still bring blankets to the potlatch: they took pity or felt bad for Sa'laLEla
- Kwawkaka'wakw: What story did the totem poles tell: Mythical history of ancestors/numayms

Game explained: Each group will have turns to pick a category and difficulty level of question they want to answer (see questions above).

Kwakwaka'wakw	Sa'laLEla	Numaym	Potlatch

100	100	100	100
200	200	200	200
300	300	300	300
400	400	400	400