

Discussion Questions:

1. How was Natasha's life the same as yours and how was it different?
2. Have you ever had to leave home for a very long period of time? How did you feel?
3. Is there ever a time when a child should turn in their parents to the legal authorities for something they did?

Jeopardy questions:

For 100 points:

- NATASHA: Her age at the start of the story: 13
- FAMILY: Natasha's great uncle was named: Igor
- RUSSIAN WARS: The Russians fought the Germans in: Great War (or WWI and II)
- COMMUNISM: The name of the Communist organization for youth: Pioneers

For 200 points:

- NATASHA: Natasha had a conflict over: turning in her parents
- FAMILY: Before the Communist Revolution, Natasha's family had been: successful farmers
- RUSSIAN WARS: In 1904 the Russians were attacked by the: Japanese
- COMMUNISM: The early Communists wanted children to be raised: outside the home (or in daycare centers)

For 300 points:

- NATASHA: Natasha learned that the only thing in her life that never changed was: her biological family
- FAMILY: Natasha's parents belonged to the: Russian Orthodox Church
- RUSSIAN WARS: The war the Russians fought against the Ottoman Empire: Crimean War
- COMMUNISM: Communists believed in shared ownership of: the means of production

For 400 points:

- NATASHA: When Natasha was old in 1991 she lived during: the dissolution of the Soviet Union
- FAMILY: Natasha's family was breaking Soviet law by: planning a protest for religious freedom
- RUSSIAN WARS: The year of the Communist Revolution: 1917
- COMMUNISM: The name Communists gave to people who thought individuals should own more things: "bourgeois attitudes"

Natasha	Family	Russian wars	Communism
 A painting of a young woman with brown hair, wearing a white dress with a colorful floral pattern on the shoulders, looking to the left.	 A painting of a woman with a red headscarf and a plaid shirt, looking down.	 A painting depicting a chaotic battle scene with soldiers, some on horseback, and fallen figures on the ground.	 The flag of the Soviet Union, featuring a red field with a yellow hammer and sickle and a yellow star.
100	100	100	100
200	200	200	200
300	300	300	300
400	400	400	400